

Plan the perfect day in Truro, Nova Scotia!

IDEA #1

start the day at Victoria Park

Located in the centre of Truro, Victoria Park is a 3000 acre natural woodland boasting incredible natural features, including a dramatic steep-sided gorge, a winding river, cascading waterfalls, and a stately old-growth Eastern Hemlock forest. Challenge yourself with a 175-step climb to the top of Jacob's Ladder. Spend an hour or spend the day!

head downtown for some retail therapy

Explore Inglis St. for an exceptional mix of unique and beautiful shops enhanced by warm, East Coast hospitality and small town charm. Find a fantastic souvenir or a locally made pair of Stanfield's long johns!

end the day at bistro on prince

The perfect end to a perfect day, enjoy a delicious meal and amazing cocktails back at the hotel. Or, ask about our extensive wine list and selection of local craft beers. There's something to please every palette at Bistro on Prince.
